30 Sec. 2. Review: Arizona e-learning task force

31 A. Notwithstanding title 41, chapter 27, article 1, Arizona Revised

32 Statutes, the committee of reference for the house of representatives

33 committee on education (k-12) and the senate committee on education k-12

34 shall conduct a review of the Arizona e-learning task force for the following

35 purposes:

36 1. To determine the actual need of the task force.

37 2. To determine the extent to which the statutory requirements of the 38 task force are necessary and are being met.

39 3. To receive testimony from the public as to the relationship of the 40 task force with the public.

41 4. To receive testimony from the chairperson of the task force as to 42 the reasons for the continuation of the task force.

43 B. The committee of reference shall consider but not be limited to the

44 following factors in determining the need for continuation or termination of

45 the task force:

1 1. The objective and purpose in establishing the task force.
2 2. The effectiveness with which the task force has met its objective
3 and purpose and the efficiency with which it has operated.

4 3. The extent to which the task force has operated within the public
5 interest.

6 4. The extent to which the task force has encouraged input from the 7 public.

8 5. The extent to which the task force has addressed deficiencies in 9 its enabling statutes which prevent the task force from fulfilling its 10 statutory mandate.

11 6. The extent to which changes are necessary in the laws of the task
12 force to adequately comply with the factors listed in this subsection.

13 B. The committee of reference shall prepare and deliver a report of 14 its recommendations to the governor, the president of the senate, the speaker
15 of the house of representatives and the task force by December 1, 2008. Such 16 recommendations shall include one of the following:

17 1. That the task force be continued.

18 2. That the task force be revised or consolidated.

19 3. That the task force be terminated.

20 C. The final report by the committee of reference shall also include a 21 written statement prepared by the task force that contains:

22 1. An identification of the problem or the needs that the task force
23 is intended to address.

24 2. A statement, to the extent practicable, in quantitative and
25 qualitative terms, of the objectives of such task force and its anticipated
26 accomplishments.

27 3. An identification of any other task forces or agencies having 28 similar, conflicting or duplicate objectives, and an explanation of the 29 manner in which the task force avoids duplication or conflict with other such 30 task forces or agencies.

31 4. An assessment of the consequences of eliminating the task force or 32 of consolidating it with another task force or agency.
